Done Deliveries Rating
according to the leading credit reporting agencies.

Done Deliveries enjoys a high level of trust from the largest credit reporting agencies.

Our reliability and financial stability have been confirmed in independent reports that summarise our operations and creditworthiness.

Here are the key points about our current rating:

Financial Credibility

Done Deliveries has received the highest rating in terms of financial credibility. Our obligations are fulfilled on time, reinforcing our reputation as a reliable business partner.

Financial Stability

The reports highlight our financial stability, pointing to a solid capital structure and the ability to generate steady revenues. Our company is well-prepared for potential market fluctuations.

Creditworthiness

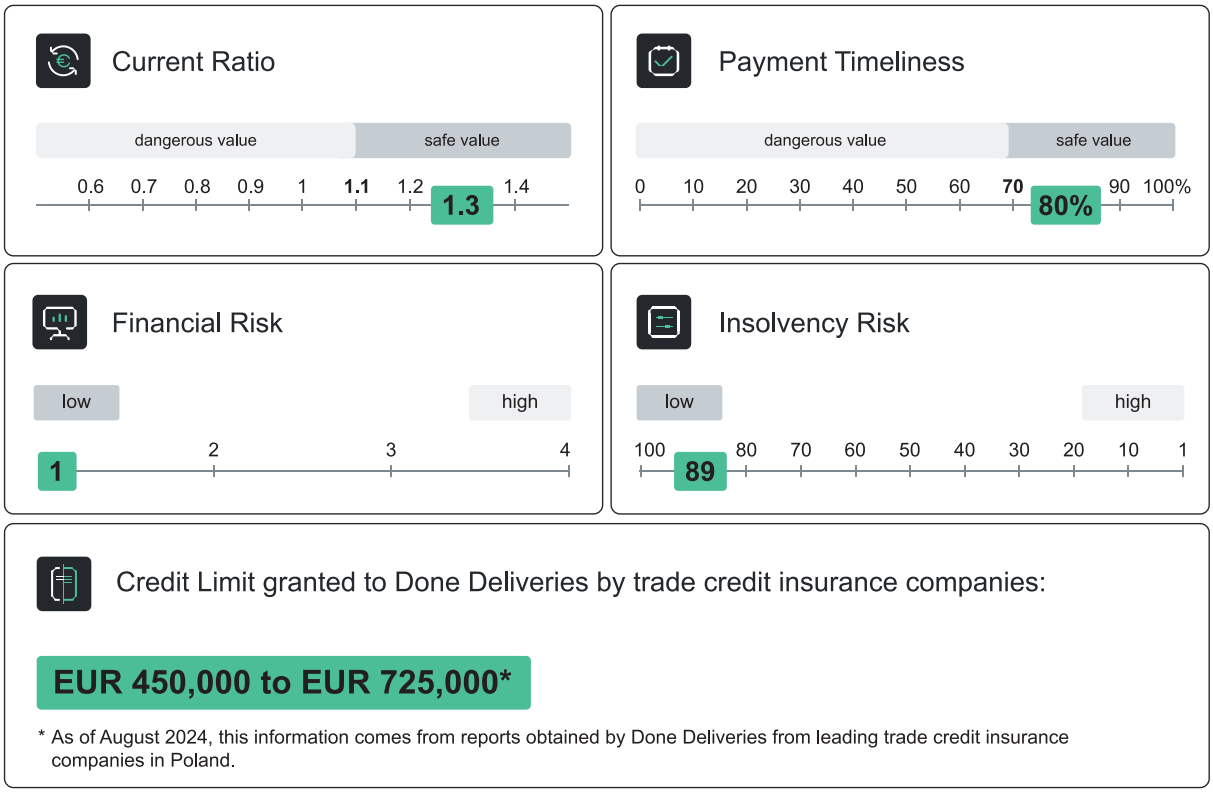

Done Deliveries has earned a high credit rating, meaning we are seen as a trustworthy debtor with low credit risk. This enables us to secure favourable financing terms for our operations.

Business Reputation

Our reputation within the industry is very positive. The reports point to high ethical standards and professionalism in our relationships with clients and business partners.

Key Indicators

Below are some key indicators published by the major credit reporting agencies that reflect our financial condition:

If you are interested in more detailed information about Done Deliveries' ratings, full reports from the credit reporting agencies can be provided upon individual request.

To gain access to this information, please contact our Carrier Care department at: carriercare@donedeliveries.com.